

Here are a series of questions to explore in this week's tutorial:

1. Final Q&A before Reflective Report submission: bring questions with you to the tutorial.
2. Which authors have been quoted when exploring Critical Reading this week? What do you remember about the authors' contributions?
3. Can you give a practical example of how you could start to map out a landscape of evidence?
4. Name each of the six concepts recommended by Chatfield (2018) when evaluating sources. Explain what each concept means in the context of critical analysis?
5. How could you include the theme of Critical Reading in your Reflective Report?
6. Does the Reflective Report have any specific requirements?
