

Here are a series of questions to explore in this week's tutorial:

1. Name each of the six concepts recommended by Chatfield (2018) when evaluating sources. Which factor do you feel is the most important and why?
2. What is meant by currency in relation to source evaluation?
3. Choose one of the other factors recommended by Chatfield (2018) and create questions related to it. These are questions that you may ask yourself when evaluating a source.
4. Explain what Critical Speaking can involve.
5. How can Critical Speaking help effective collaboration?
6. What steps have you taken both collectively and individually to set up your group project?
