

Here are a series of questions to encourage reflection on the group project process. Make notes in answer to the questions below.

1. How did you decide on your group theme? Was it a collective decision?
2. Did all the group members fulfil their roles and complete their part of the work on time?
3. In terms of the group dynamics:
  - a. What were the strengths of the collaborative process?
  - b. What were the weaknesses?
4. How would you describe the communication between the group members?
5. How do you feel about the finalised project?
6. What were your main learnings gained for next time?
7. In what ways has your understanding of Critical Thinking developed?
